

Update from ACOR (written report provided because Oystein LaBianca is unable to attend)

- Celebration of 50 years: June 25 gala for ACOR at 50 and success of Jan. 10 one here at ACOR hosted in Library (blogs/announcements on website).
- Barbara Porter 50th Anniversary Lecture Feb. 28 (again on website)/Jack Green first public lecture on April 18.
- Assessment of ACOR building is underway in hopes of receiving a new grant.
- Successful fellowship committee result. We recommended seven CAORC awards, including four pre-doc and three post-docs, plus one NEH awardee. We also awarded a number of named fellowships for travel to Jordan and assistance to Jordanian students with tuition.
- Temple of the Winged Lions active field project ended. Assessment of the project and future publication and coordination with Petra Archaeological Park is in progress.
- Bayt Ras Tomb Project has been supported by SCHEP and was made public in April 2018. Future conservation and documentation efforts are planned for June.
- Strategic Planning Process is in progress. Sten has share a copy of ASOR's strategic plan with the taskforce working on this assignment.

- Celebration of 50 years: June 25 gala for ACOR at 50 and success of Jan. 10 one here at ACOR hosted in Library (blogs/announcements on website).
- Barbara Porter 50th Anniversary Lecture Feb. 28 (again on website)/Jack Green first public lecture on April 18.
- Assessment of ACOR building is underway in hopes of receiving a new grant.
- Successful fellowship committee results (Sten may provide further update).
- Temple of the Winged Lions active field project ended. Assessment of the project and future publication and coordination with Petra Archaeological Park is in progress.
- Bayt Ras Tomb Project has been supported by SCHEP and was made public in April 2018. Future conservation and documentation efforts are planned for June.
- Strategic Planning Process is in progress.