ARTICLE I: OFFICES	ARTICLE I: PURPOSE AND ORGANIZATION
N.A.	Section 1.1. Founding and mission. Founded in 1900 by the Archaeological Institute of America, the Society of Biblical Literature, the American Oriental Society, and several prominent academic institutions, the American Schools of Oriental Research (ASOR) is an international organization whose mission is to initiate, encourage, and support research into, and public understanding of, the history and cultures of the Near East and wider Mediterranean, from the earliest times.	Mission statement added.
Article I, Section 1. The American Schools of Oriental Research (ASOR) shall be constituted as a corporation. Its principal office shall be at such location in the continental United States as the Board of Trustees may determine. The Corporation may have such other offices, either within or without the District of Columbia, as the Board of Trustees may determine or as the affairs of the Corporation may require from time to time.	Section 1.2. Organization and location. ASOR shall be constituted as a corporation pursuant to the District of Columbia Nonprofit Corporation Act of 2010 (Sections 29-401.01 through 29-414.04 of the Code of the District of Columbia). ASOR's principal office shall be in the continental United States at a location determined by the Board of Trustees. ASOR may maintain one or more satellite offices, either within or without the United States, as the Board of Trustees may determine.	Tightening and clarification of the text; consistency with the Articles of Incorporation; added flexibility to establish offices outside of the United States in recognition of expanded international footprint. PROPOSED ADDITION: ADDING THIS PROVISION IS IN CONFORMITY WITH THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA NONPROFIT CORPORATION ACT OF 2010.
Article I, Section 2. The Corporation shall have and continuously maintain in the District of Columbia a registered	Section 1.3. Registered agents. ASOR shall maintain a registered agent in the state in which ASOR's principal office	Tightening and clarification of the text; consistency with the Articles of Incorporation.
