

Survey on ASOR's Name: Part 2
Top Choices
July 16, 2020

Total Responses: 407

65 responses wanted to keep ASOR (this includes both keeping the name as is and retrofitting the acronym)

First Choice (worth two points):

- 62 Society for Archaeology, Philology, and History of the Middle East (SAPHME): 31 votes
- 32 Association for Archaeological Research and Cultural Heritage Education (AARCHE): 16 votes
- 436 Society for Ancient Near Eastern Research (SANER): 218 votes
- 44 Association for Archaeology, Research, Cultural Heritage, and Education (AARCHE): 22 votes
- 104 Society for Archaeology, Philology, and History of the Ancient Near East (SAPHANE): 52 votes
- 136 None: 68 votes

Second Choice (worth one point):

- 57 Society for Archaeology, Philology, and History of the Middle East (SAPHME): 57 votes
- 37 Association for Archaeological Research and Cultural Heritage Education (AARCHE): 37 votes
- 73 Society for Ancient Near Eastern Research (SANER): 73 votes
- 25 Association for Archaeology, Research, Cultural Heritage, and Education (AARCHE): 25 votes
- 137 Society for Archaeology, Philology, and History of the Ancient Near East (SAPHANE): 137 votes
- 73 None: 73 votes

Total Points:

- 119 Society for Archaeology, Philology, and History of the Middle East (SAPHME)
- 69 Association for Archaeological Research and Cultural Heritage Education (AARCHE)
- 509 Society for Ancient Near Eastern Research (SANER)
- 69 Association for Archaeology, Research, Cultural Heritage, and Education (AARCHE)
- 241 Society for Archaeology, Philology, and History of the Ancient Near East (SAPHANE)
- 209 None